Getting my ID verified & Making the payment

How you get your ID verified is determined by your Organisation, who will either verify your ID themselves or ask that you have your ID verified at a Post Office.

If you are unsure on which ID verification process to follow please contact your organisation.

ID verified by organisation

If you have not already supplied your ID for verification, once you have completed the application form, contact your organisation and arrange with them, a time to do so.

If you are required to pay for the application, once your ID has been verified you must log back in to OnlineDisclosures, (using the Org PIN, your email address and the password you created) to do so.

Note: All payments are processed through PayPal, If you do not have a PayPal account, select the option 'Pay with a credit or debit card'.

PayPal will send an email to confirm receipt of payment.

Post Office ID Verification

In order for the Post Office to verify your ID, you must take with you:

- > The ID Verification Service sheet – available to print once you have submitted the application form.
- > The original pieces of ID selected for verification
- > Method of payment (where applicable)

To find the nearest Post Office go to <http://www.postoffice.co.uk/branch-finder>

Enter your postcode and select 'CRB & ID Verification Service' from the 'Service Required' field.

The Post Office will accept payments via cash or debit/credit card.
